

Your Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

MEC Driver's Road Test and Observation Examination

Drivers Name _____ (Printed)
Driver's License No. _____
Phone Number _____
Drivers Address _____
ST _____ Zip _____

This test shall be given by a supervisor is who is a competent (CDL Driver) in order to evaluate and determine whether the driver taking the test has demonstrated that he or she is capable of operating the vehicle and associated equipment that the company assigns for employee to operation.

- ☐ Driver successfully performs the pre-trip inspection as required by Sec. 392.7 (JJ Keller Book)
- ☐ Driver successfully couples and uncouples trailers assigned to driver.
- ☐ Driver understands the operation and functions needed for towing poles and equipment trailers.
- ☐ Driver understands the air system pertaining to associated trucks
- ☐ Diver understands and is aware of all alerts systems associated with the equipment assigned
- ☐ Driver demonstrates the proper use of controls and emergency equipment
- ☐ Driver safely operates the vehicle in traffic and while passing vehicles
- ☐ Driver brings vehicle to proper stop when situation warrants.
- ☐ Driver properly and safely turns the vehicle in all situations.
- ☐ Driver demonstrates the proper method of braking and slowing the vehicle by any means other than braking
- ☐ Driver demonstrates how to properly back and park the vehicle
- ☐ Driver properly chocks the vehicle each time vehicle is halted and driver exits unit.
- ☐ Driver demonstrates the proper way to enter and exit vehicle at all time without injury to him or herself.
- ☐ Driver follows all laws and all applicable company safety rules.

Description of Equipment Operated while in observation _____ Units _____

- ☐ It is my opinion that the driver is qualified to operate MEC equipment.
- ☐ It is my opinion, that the driver is not qualified to operate MEC equipment.

Observer _____ Title _____ Date _____

Remarks _____
